'This book of poems in English entitled- Fly, Fly, Fly My Words! is a precious golden feather in the crown of the Indian English Poetry. The poems vary in themes like love, life, death, feminism, nature, an aestheticism, poetic creativity, suicides of the youth and farmers, generation gap, natural calamities, national integrity in variety, modern technology and its advantages and disadvantages, environmental awareness etc.

Thus, Mr.R.B.Shinde has reflected conventional themes as well as modern, contemporary issues by utilizing poetic techniques, devices with figurative diction in his poems very skillfully. It will definitely inspire the readers for creativity. Everybody can comprehend these poems as glossary follows every one of them. Personally, I appreciate this book and would like the poetry lovers to go through it.'
